

TECHNOVA UNIVERSITY — CAMPUS RULES

Official Documentation Content

All students are expected to maintain discipline and behave respectfully on the university campus.

Students must carry their valid university identification card while on campus and present it when requested by authorized university personnel.

Students must attend classes, practical sessions, examinations, and other academic activities according to the schedules provided by the university.

Students must respect faculty members, staff, visitors, and fellow students.

University classrooms, laboratories, libraries, sports facilities, and other resources must be used responsibly.

Students must not intentionally damage university property.

Students must keep the campus clean and use designated waste disposal facilities.

Electronic devices should be used responsibly during academic activities and must not disturb classes or examinations.

Students must follow safety instructions when using laboratories, workshops, sports facilities, and other specialized areas.

Students are expected to follow examination rules and academic integrity requirements.

Any student activity that violates university policies may be reviewed according to the applicable disciplinary procedures.

Students should contact university authorities when they need clarification about campus rules or policies.

Questions & Answers

Q1. What general standard of behavior is expected from students on the university campus?

A1. All students are expected to maintain discipline and behave respectfully on the university campus.

Q2. What is the university rule regarding identification cards on campus?

A2. Students must carry their valid university identification card while on campus and present it when requested by authorized university personnel.

Q3. When are students required to present their university identification card?

A3. Students must present their valid identification card whenever requested by authorized university personnel.

Q4. What are the attendance requirements for students at TechNova University?

A4. Students must attend classes, practical sessions, examinations, and other academic activities according to the schedules provided by the university.

Q5. Whom are students expected to respect on campus?

A5. Students must respect faculty members, staff, visitors, and fellow students.

Q6. How should students use university facilities like classrooms, laboratories, and libraries?

A6. University classrooms, laboratories, libraries, sports facilities, and other resources must be used responsibly.

Q7. What is the rule concerning the protection of university property?

A7. Students must not intentionally damage university property.

Q8. What campus cleanliness guidelines must all students follow?

A8. Students must keep the campus clean and use designated waste disposal facilities.

Q9. What is the university policy on using electronic devices during academic activities?

A9. Electronic devices should be used responsibly during academic activities and must not disturb classes or examinations.

Q10. What safety rules apply when students use laboratories and workshops?

A10. Students must follow safety instructions when using laboratories, workshops, sports facilities, and other specialized areas.

Q11. What standards must students uphold during examinations?

A11. Students are expected to follow examination rules and academic integrity requirements.

Q12. What actions may be taken if a student violates university policies?

A12. Any student activity that violates university policies may be reviewed according to the applicable disciplinary procedures.

Q13. Whom should students contact if they need clarification on campus rules or policies?

A13. Students should contact university authorities when they need clarification about campus rules or policies.